Many returned to Mark Masons' Hall the following day, Thursday, for the Annual Convocation of Grand Senatus.

This event is always very well supported, and a notice had been sent out asking Companions who hadn't notified MMH of their intention to attend not to make the journey in to join the meeting. They thanked all of those who heeded the advice as the Temple, while being nicely full, was able to cope with the numbers in attendance, on a beautifully warm and sunny day, without things getting too stifling.

The Grand Summus, Dist.Comp. Ian Stanley Currans, VI, presided over the meeting, ably assisted by a full team of Grand Officers.

Having re-appointed his Deputy, R.Dist.Comp. Francis C. Spencer, and Assistant, R.Dist.Comp. Howard S. Markham, there came the appointment to Grand Regent Vicarius of Madhavan Chellappa in recognition of his working in promoting the Order in India.

The Grand Officers of the year were then appointed and invested, followed by those receiving promotion and first appointment.

R.Dist.Comp Trevor Currans was reappointed as President of the Executive Committee, Very Distinguished Companion Ian Smith was reappointed for the third year as Grand Lecturer, and Distinguished Companion Ian Clark received a first appointment to Past Grand Sword Bearer.

Distinguished Companion Len Hillier received a first appointment to Past Grand Standard Bearer. There to support Len on his special day were Alan, Bob and Jeff from Surrey Consistory No 4 T.I.
